

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A multi-component pharmaceutical dosage form suitable for retaining drug substance can be released to provide a controlled drug release profile in the gastro intestinal environment, characterized by a body e.g. comprising a delayed release polymeric material such as Eudragit 4135F, the body having at least one cavity said cavity having a mouth opening and a film means e.g. comprising an immediate release polymeric material e.g. Eudragit E100 or a blend thereof, connected to the body and closing the mouth opening.